San Diego, CA 92101

The Litigation Section of the State Bar of California and the Association of Business Trial Lawyers of San Diego are presenting this “brown bag” luncheon during which members of the bar can meet with a member of the federal judiciary in a small and intimate setting.

The lunch will be held November 7, 2007, from Noon to 1:00 p.m., at the United States Bankruptcy Court, Southern District, in a Courtroom that will be identified at the Courthouse. Judge Bowie will speak on, among other things, what every civil litigator should know about bankruptcy including its effect on pending litigation; getting relief from stay; adversary proceedings; and planning for bankruptcy in drafting settlement and other agreements. Jeffrey D. Cawdrey, Esq. will participate in the presentation.

The program is open to all members of the State Bar Litigation Section and the ABTL. Space is limited. Those interested in attending should register no later than November 5, 2007, by contacting Charles V. Berwanger of Gordon & Rees at cberwanger@gordonrees.com or Oni Bell, Mr. Berwanger’s assistant, at obell@gordonrees.com. If you have questions please call 619-230-7773. Seating is available “first come, first served.” Finally, you should bring your own lunch.

This event is approved for one hour of State Bar of California MCLE credit.
